Mr. James Derkal
[redacted]

Dear J:

I am enclosing a memorandum covering a few of the coins and paper money which can be put on exhibit. I will be glad to eliminate any of these and add others, depending on the wishes of the group. If you need any more information about any of these coins please let me know.

As I previously stated to you, I do not wish my name used in connection with any of the publicity with respect to these coins as the advance publicity is only for the purpose of attracting people to your convention.

I have avoided listing any extremely rare United States coins because of the recent exhibition of the Elias Berg collection. I have tried to select items which he does not have.

If you want to send me any of the publicity releases before they are released, I will be glad to go over them with respect to accuracy.

Good luck on the convention plans!

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Newman:

We were very pleased to receive your illustrious list of liabilities and assets. As I told you before in the matter of one of our problems concerning the proper im[illegible]. When I read your list my mouth dropped about four inches and needless to say this remarkable item reported by every member of the Board.

I will make a publicity story around your list and present it to the Numismatist and Scrapbook. You will receive a copy for your approval and correction before they are sent.

The Board of Governors and I heartily agreed that this display will attract the more advanced collectors and dealers throughout the country. We then decided to impose upon your generosity, once more, and ask you to give the world display of the more rarer, silver, United States coins for the average collector to see and appreciate. There was the hubbub of enthusiasm about this has never seen. This display would not necessarily be included in the advance publicity, but would be listed in our convention program and possibly [illegible] Coral Room.

Thank you very much.

Jim

Dear Mr. Berkel:

I will, of course, be glad to cooperate with you in any way you wish as to the coming convention.

Would you be kind enough to do me a favor in Belleville? The Country Store, which operates at Jefferson Memorial, in St. Louis, has bought from the Karr Company, two miniature stoves. Would you pick them up, at your convenience, and bring them to St. Louis the next time you drive in. I suggest that you check with the Karr Company to be sure they are ready.. Do not make a special trip to St. Louis. You can leave the stoves at my office, downtown, or at Jefferson Memorial, or at my home, or bring them to the next Coin Club meeting, whatever is easiest.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Jim:

I just wanted to let you know that I have your coin display case at 400 Washington Avenue and you can pick it up the next time you are in the city. The total cost, including freight, is $18.02 and a check payable to the Mercantile Library Association will take care of the matter.

My wife has ordered four more miniature stoves and if it would be possible could you pick these up and bring them to the office at the same time. The two which you brought in before were sold by the Historical Society and I hope this service which you are rendering the society is not inconvenient for you.

As to the convention, I had a sample necktie made up out of cloth containing pictures of Pine Tree shillings. The neckties will cost about $1.50 each to make up and I am wondering whether you think we can sell enough for perhaps $3.50 to make it worth while for the club. The ties are beautiful and if you would like to see one I will be glad to show it to you.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Jim:

I have spoken to Mr. Schulte with respect to the insurance and the insurance is not satisfactory for me as it does not cover mysterious disappearance. There has to be proof of the breaking in to a case. I have, therefore, taken up the insurance problem with another agent and he has asked me how many exhibitors will be insured and what value their exhibits will be. If we could get a notion as to the total insurance we will be granting each exhibitor rather than the group as a whole it would be a lot better.

There is also one other thought, namely, that we do not supply insurance for general exhibitors unless that is an accepted and required practice in conventions.

Let me know a little more about the situation and I will work on it further.

As far as the insurance for myself is concerned I will be able to name specifically the coins in question and will have no trouble getting full coverage. If others would do that it would be very simple also.

Apparently, the insurance companies are worried that something may be claimed to be lost or missing which was not even at the convention.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

ERIC P. NEWMAN

Dear Eric -

Nice to hear from you. You are a busy boy and I just couldn't get in touch with you in time. I have always liked Evansville, as I had worked here at one time. I had been thinking about moving for over a year - Here was a town of 140,000 and a metropolitan area of over 235,000 & no decent civis shop - Finally a friend of mine won't to get out of the Marines

and I quit altogether.
Things were pretty hectic
as I had to do everything
within two weeks time.
We had three 16ft trucks
loads we moved on New Years
Day - Believe me, a civis shop is not to be moved in a hurry.

So far, everything points
to it being a good move.
I have teletype and I have a walk in vault. I've had 14 30 second TV SHOTS in prime time and it couldn't have been better for letting people know I'm here.

I don't see why our coin relationship should show up in any way. I've been coming back to St. Louis at least twice a month. I'm closed, here, on Sun & Mon and that gives me

two days to carry on business back home.
I barely 2½ hr drive from here. We leave Sat afternoon at 4:00 and arrive in Belleville at 6:30. Spend all day Sun + Mon and leave Mon afternoon.
Have done quite a bit in St. Louis since I've been gone. If you + I can get together on a cash
deal, fine, nothing's changed, as I can close at any time and am hoping we can get some more coins to deal with. As always, there's a shortage of the goodies -

The brown red note is a hundred and is still the pride of my collection. I have been accumulating quite a bit of Belleville material of all kinds and will keep everything together. As I promised, if I ever despise of the bill, you will get it. I reaffirm that promise to you.

Keep in touch and I will stick my head in the door some Monday morning if I can catch you coming or going to a meeting.

Nice to hear from you

Sincerely

Dear Jim:

Would it be possible to purchase about 1,000 silver dollars dated 1922? Perhaps somebody has a bag of them. What would the cost be?

I have suggested this as a special souvenir for an occasion and thought you would be the best one to be in a position to give me an answer.

Dear Jim:

I wanted to write you to wish you well in your new venture even though it is not very new any more. I know you called me up before you left and assume that you were going to tell me your plans. I hope that now you are the big coin operator in the area and that your shop is swinging with customers. I certainly will miss our pleasant contacts which we have had over the years but if you are ever in St. Louis, please call.

Incidentally, you will recall that you have a $50 brown seal Belleville National Bank note which I particularly wanted but which you were emotional about because of your loyalty to Belleville. Now that Evansville is your pad, would you want to exchange the Belleville note for an equivalent value in other notes?

Joe Mileham gave me your address at the St. Louis Coin Show this last weekend.

Dear Jim:

I need a little further information concerning the Heath Counterfeit Detector. Please let me know the copyright date. Please let me know if there is a list of illustrations following the contents and what the last three illustrations listed show.

I am sending your Stockholm book information to ANS to see if they need it.

The Snowden I already have,but it is a lovely item and perhaps your friend, Mileham, wants it.

I will be contacting you again on the rest of the items I will have available and would appreciate hearing from you as to the Heath.

Dear Jim:

I believe I can find a place for the item printed in Stockholm which you wrote me about. Would you suggest some price.

How are you doing on the Heath Detector which you have on approval from me?

There is an enormous collection of half dollars from 1794 to date, including Commemoratives, here in St. Louis. It is going to be offered for sale. There are a lot of proofs and a lot of branch Mints and every date is covered. It is loaded with half dollar patterns. I think they will probably have to auction it but if youhave any ideas, it is a fantastic collection.
